

Department of Psychology - Course Catalog (Fall 2025)

Department Overview:

The Department of Psychology offers courses that explore human behavior, cognition, and emotion. Students gain insight into mental processes and practical applications in counseling and research.

Course Listings

Course Code: PSY 101

Course Title: Introduction to Psychology

Credits: 3

Description: A survey of the major areas of psychology, including perception, memory, and learning.

Instructor: Dr. William James

Schedule: Mon/Wed 1:00 PM - 1:50 PM

Course Code: PSY 230

Course Title: Developmental Psychology

Credits: 3

Description: Examines psychological development across the lifespan, from infancy to adulthood.

Prerequisites: PSY 101

Instructor: Dr. Jean Piaget

Schedule: Tue/Thu 11:00 AM - 12:15 PM

Course Code: PSY 340

Course Title: Abnormal Psychology

Credits: 3

Description: Explores psychological disorders, their causes, and therapeutic interventions.

Prerequisites: PSY 101

Instructor: Dr. Sigmund Freud

Schedule: Mon/Wed 3:30 PM - 4:45 PM